

Hindi Debating Society

The Hindi Debating Society under the umbrella of 'the Revolutionist' is one of the most recent as well as active societies in the college. The society helps in grooming the ones who are interested in debating. Regular practice sessions are held and students are sent to various competitions at the University as well as National level.

