Ref.No.Exam.VII/2022/
Dated 17th March, 2022

The Dean/Head/Principal

Subject:- Conduct of Second Phase Examinations and filling up of Examination Form for Leftover Students of III/V/VII Semester of all Under Graduate (UG) and Post Graduate (PG) Programs including School of Open Learning (SOL) who could not write examinations held in November/December 2021 due to Covid-19 Pandemic and other reasons

Sir/Madam,

This has reference to the Notification Ref.No.Exam.VII/Conduct/2022/01 and letter No.Exam.VII/2022/13 dated 07.01.2022 on subject cited above.

In this context, as various request from the students as well as Faculty/Department/College are being received regarding non-filling of examination form meant for leftover students therefore the following has been decided:

1. The left over students who could not fill the examination form meant for the leftover students are being allowed to appear in the examination as per the scheduled date sheet.
2. The students who have already filled the examination form however, their details are not provided by the respective Faculty/Department/ College in the Google form link, such student are allowed to appear for the leftover March/April 2022 examination, if their paper code is available/scheduled as per the final date sheet issued by the University.
3. The students who have already filled the examination form however, their details are not provided by the respective Faculty/Department/ College in the Google form link and their paper is also not available in the Final date sheet then the paper for such students shall be scheduled in the due course of time.
4. In view of above, all the Faculty/Department /College are requested to provide the details of such leftover students either for the students who could not fill the examination form or the details are not provided in the Google form link, latest by 19.03.2022 at 11:00 a.m. on the following Google Link form.
